On a quiet Monday night in Carmel Valley, the "Great Bowls of Chili" cook-off raised over $6500 for the local Youth Center. Sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce, with a big boost from the Carmel Valley Sun, entrants, tasters, guests and friends turned out at the the second annual event at Holman Ranch.

Drums from the Valley's head

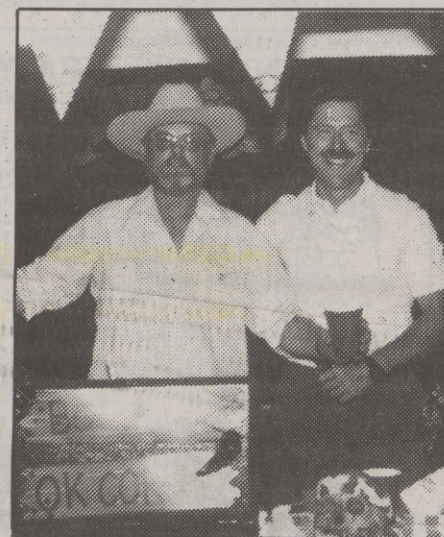

The Jamesburg School is presenting a series of drumming workshops with Charles Daniel of Trinidad. The workshops will run weekends through October 1 on the Jamesburg School campus in the Upper Carmel Valley.

Instruction in drumming techniques and authentic drum rhythms will be offered. The rhythms will include calypso, samba, nanigo, rhumba, bimbe, goombay, afro three/four, and bon-jon-jin-jay. Students should bring their own drums and percussion instruments. Saturday sessions run from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. and Sunday sessions start at 2 p.m. and finish up at 6 p.m. The cost is $30 per session and students can take one session or the whole course. Sandwiches, fruits and beverages will be available for purchase and coolers are welcome. Please leave your dogs at home.

The Jamesburg School is located in the Upper Carmel Valley on the Tassajara Road. Take Highway 1 or 68 through Carmel Valley Village east on G16 toward Greenfield. Turn right on Tassajara Rd. just past the 23.2 mile

I know, it loses something without the music unless it was the outstanding chili dishes prepared for the Carmel Valley Second Annual Chili Cook-Off contest. The event benefited the Carmel Valley Chamber of Commerce and the Community Youth Center.

Held at the Holman Ranch and expertly produced by Dorothy McEwen, the event drew over 300 and made an estimated $6,500.

Lee Warner coordinated the chili judging. Topping the list for the Best Amateur prize was dentist, Dr. Steve Austin's "Chili You Can Sink Your Teeth Into." Great play on words. Tom and Alayna Gray, last year's winners, placed second with their "Rocky Raccoon Chili". Third place winner was Mike Milligan with his "Big Red Chili".

Winning Honorable Mention were participants Leslie Voss; Dave Lyon's crew from the Youth Center, Darryl Tyler and Curt Wiese, chef; Randy and Charlene Randazzo, Larry and Rosemary Barber from the Carmel Valley Market sporting chili pepper aprons designed and made by Rosemary; Chuck Cohen; Joseph and Cynthia Hertlein; Jim Fitch, Holman Ranch.

The Best Professional went to A.B. of Pacific Coast Catering for her "Cowgirl Chili". Second place went to Oak Deli and third to Rancho San Carlos with Honorable Mention going to the Running Iron.

People's Choice award went to Pacific Coast Catering, Rancho San Carlos, Mike Milligan and Oak Deli. Oak Deli also won the Best Decorated Booth followed by Carmel Valley Market, Pacific Coast Catering, with an Honorable Mention going to Holman Ranch.

Ashley Mc Neeley, Melany Mayland and Lauren Austin spent part of the evening in the Hoosegow clad in black and white stripes. Their alleged crimes somewhat dubious.

Amanda O'Brien, Gene Erner, Thelma Lee, Paul Stokes, Lisa Land, Jud Boore, Chris Pentony, Bud Tucker, and Barry Harrow were some of the guests participating in the silent auction.

Entertainment was under the direction of M.C. Kathleen Tarp with music provide by "Elizabeth McMeely & Friends" and Jim Hilden, Pat Mahoney, Mike Osgood, Steve Palazzo and Billy Rudock of the "Homefire" group.

marker. Stay on Tassajara Rd. for approximately 3 miles. The road becomes a dirt road. Proceed 2 more miles and look for the school sign on the left. Primitive campgrounds are nearby in the Los Padres National Forest. Private instruction and master classes are available by arrangement. For more information call 659-3344 after 6 p.m.

Charles Daniel, native of Trinidad, was introduced to the field of music at an early age. He came to the U.S. in 1979 to attend an international youth summer music program in which he played clarinet and saxophone. Charles' interest in the field of percussion was aroused after coming to the U.S. again in 1987 when he performed and studied with virtuoso congero Renaldo Jackson. Charles has also performed with the legendary Clint Garvin Big Band of San Luis Obispo. He has served as a part time consultant for the Cal Poly Symphonic and Jazz bands.

Charles has traveled to the East Coast to study with the inventor of the modern steel drum, Ellie Mannette. Charles has been involved in the manufacture of this instrument and the promotion of its use with authentic conga rhythms. A steel drum workshop may be offered at the school if there is enough interest.

OBITUARIES

GLEND A ELIZABETH FABRE

Glenda Elizabeth Fabre, 54, born in San Jose, died on September 2, 1995 at Community Hospital of the Monterey Peninsula.

She was a graduate of U.C. Berkeley, attended college in Paris, France and was a French scientific translator. Ms. Fabre lived in Carmel Valley and Monterey County for 16 years and had also resided in Orange County and San Jose.

Survivors are daughters: Patricia Helen Fabre and Cathy Daniele Annie Fabre of Carmel Valley, a brother, Richard Spivey of Maine and a sister, Elaine Dalton of Puyallup, Washington.

Inurnment is in Oak Hill Memorial Park, San Jose. The Paul Mortuary handled arrangements.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Medical College Fund for Cath Fabre. Call 624-6886 for information.

MARJORIE PROCEK

Marjorie Procek, 86, a Carmel resident for nearly 23 years, died Sunday, September 10 at Hospice House. Mrs. Procek was born November 3, 1908 in Sydney, Australia. She and her late husband, Stanley, moved to Carmel from Illinois in 1972.

She is survived by four children, nine grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Memorial services were held on September 18 at The Little Chapel by-the-sea in Pacific Grove under the direction of The Paul Mortuary. Inurnment took place at El Carmelo Cemetery in Pacific Grove.

Contributions are suggested to Hospice of the Central Coast, PO Box 1798, Monterey, Ca. 93942.

the Tularcitos Fall Carnival, and some dude who's trying real hard to get married next month, this very popular afternoon concert featuring the best of 50's and 60's music has been returned to the nostalgia file for another year.

Fear not. Or is that "No Fear"? The Beach Boys, Jan and Dean, and all other tropical rockers will return next year, with an ever impressive collection of ugly Hawaiian shirts, grass skirts and large coconuts.

Speaking of water balloons in Margaritaville ...the Community Pool is still open on weekends through September from noon until 5 p.m. for all you parrot heads out there who can't get enough of this totally excellent late summer weather. Special kudos and a free pina colada to Coach Di and the Guard Gang for hanging in there after the start of school: the ten thousand of you who showed up to enjoy the pool this past Labor Day know what I'm talking about.

Between the crowd at the pool, the Holy Rollers at the Gospel Festival, and the Porta-Potties in the parking lot, there was much to labor with; many thanks to everyone who kept an eye on things (what's that stuff bubbling up through the lawn?) insuring that a good time was had by all.

Which reminds us ... the long range weather forecast calls for awesome rays through the end of next month (remember, you read it here first...) and the Community Park is the perfect place to gather several hundred of your best friends for a BBQ or lawn party. Time for that company picnic again? High School class reunion coming around? The Community Park (featuring that most excellent gazebo) is the ideal spot. Call the CVCYC office at 659-3983 for complete info on reserving the site of your choice.

Mary Wells joins ColorAd Printers

ColorAd Printers in Ryan Ranch, Monterey, announced the appointment of Mary Wells of Carmel Valley to the position of Printing Consultant for the Monterey Peninsula area.

Formerly Sales and Marketing Director of Homes and Land Magazine, Wells will also be responsible for ColorAd's new marketing program which includes advertising, promotion through group organizations, direct contact with businesses facilitated by presentations, tours of the ColorAd facility and other special events.

Carol Lee Owens elected new Symphony president

On August 30, the board of directors of the Monterey County Symphony Association, Inc. the fully professional orchestra serving all of Monterey and San Benito counties, unanimously elected Carmel Valley resident, Carol Lee Owens, as its twenty-sixth president. Mrs. Owens will preside over the orchestra's fiftieth anniversary season and all related events and activities.

The Association membership elected the following individuals to serve a three year term on its board of directors: Judy Higgerson, Lesley Nilsson and Suzanne Obaid of Carmel; Carolyn Samson of Carmel Valley; Lawrence C. Blair and Paul E. Davis, Sr. of Monterey; Suzanne Lehr and John T. Stewart of Pebble Beach; and Duncan McCarter of Salinas.

Carol Lee Owens, a native Californian, graduated from the University of California, Berkeley. She has served on the Symphony board of directors since 1990 where her leadership roles included chair of the nominating committee, association secretary and chair of the first annual Cabaret Pops Concert. Mrs. Owens has served on many community boards and is a past president of the Junior League of Monterey County. With the Junior League, Mrs. Owens helped establish both the Monterey County Symphony Youth Orchestra and the youth education program. Mrs. Owens owns Cotton Bale and Pot & Pail shops for home and garden in The Barnyard. Mrs. Owens and her husband, Jerry, live in Carmel Valley.

The Monterey County Symphony board of directors also elected: Sally Cantor, vice-president marketing; Gabriele Hahn, vice-president development; Thomas N. Ruth, vice-president marketing; Michael Wiley, treasurer, and Richard Zahm, secretary, for one year terms.

The highlight of the annual meeting, held at La Play Hotel and attended by a capacity audience, was a tribute to retiring Symphony Association president Sherrie McCullough. Mrs. McCullough was president for the past four seasons, the second person in 49 years to serve 4 terms and the first woman to do so.

During Sherrie McCullough's tenure, the Symphony created several new activities including a chamber music series at the historic Mayflower Church in Pacific Grove, a family day concert in Salinas and guest artist recitals. She supervised a restructuring of the volunteer support group, the Friends of the Monterey County Symphony and presided over fund raising campaigns totalling $2.5 million. Attracting and developing effective board leadership and skilled administrators was a particular achievement of Ms. McCullough. She is the owner of Classical KBach, 95.5 FM.

The Monterey County Symphony opens its Fiftieth Anniversary Season on Saturday, September 30 with its annual Cabaret Pops Concert featuring Stardust, an Andrews Sisters style singing group, and pianist Emile Naoumoff performing Rachmaninoff's Second Piano Concerto. The subscription season opens on October 22, 23, 24 with Clark Suttle, music director and conductor, leading the orchestra in Rodrigo's concierto de Aranjuez with guitarist Christopher Parkening. New Equestrian services offered in Carmel Valley

Management of the 400 acre Holman Ranch in Carmel Valley is gearing up for fall with a whole new approach to riding education. For equestrians who have let work interfere with their pleasure, The Holman Ranch will provide evening lessons in hunt seat riding, dressage and western riding. Lessons started September 4 in the covered riding area.

Abby Foss, manager of the Equestrian Center and former Director of the Monterey Peninsula College Riding Program, is teaching.

Trish Collins, a lifelong Carmel Valley resident and experienced western rider and driver, will teach beginner and intermediate western horsemanship and trail riding on Mondays.

On Wednesday evenings, Laura Allgood Bruun, assistant trainer to internationally recognized dressage judge and trainer Jeff Moore of Oiserlea Farm in San Juan Bautista, will offer "Introduction to Dressage" which will eventually work into quadrille patterns.

Kevan Jones, an experienced event rider and English trainer offers beginning hunt seat on Thursday evenings.

The newly introduced dressage program at The Holman Ranch will feature monthly clinics of individual lessons. Regular instruction in hunt seat riding, western pleasure and trail riding area available at the ranch. Ray Berta trains, starts colts and works to instill confidence in young and problem horses.

Nationally recognized hunter and jumper judge and trainer, Richard Keller, will train and teach at The Holman Ranch. He will offer his first public clinic at the ranch on November 4th and 5th. Call 659-6054 for information regarding clinics or the regular lesson programs.

VALLEY VOICE

Fran Farina

September has been a busy month at the Water Management District office. We have scheduled seven informational meetings throughout the community on the New Los Padres Water Supply Project. Two of these public forums will be held in Carmel Valley.

On Tuesday, September 26, at 7:00 p.m. at the Carmel Valley Community Youth Center located at 25 Ford Road and on Wednesday, September 27, at 7:00 p.m. at All Saints Day School on Carmel Valley Road, District staff will make brief presentations on the project including a description, purposes, features and cost. Most of the time will be spent responding to questions.

One area of interest to residents of the valley will be traffic associated with construction of the project. District staff have prepared a "project construction scenario" which shows month by month what additional truck traffic we can expect on Carmel Valley Road.

Another area of interest should be what measures the District will take to reduce construction traffic impacts.

We've also prepared a project implementation schedule which shows what activities will be taking place (assuming a favorable vote on the project) beginning in 1996 with final design, and continuing through project construction and operation.

Work along the Carmel River continues on several fronts. Channel clearing to remove flood related debris has been ongoing. Our goal is to complete debris removal work in the river bottom by November 1. There may be additional work after November 1 to remove debris from the channel banks and terraces. Crews will be available to do this work until the end of the year.

Project work is scheduled to begin in early October at the All Saints and deDampierre sites. District staff have completed draft plans and specifications as well as secured a stream alteration agreement from California Department of Fish and Game.

We anticipate receiving a 404 permit from the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers in a matter of days. This will allow restoration work to occur from the Pacific Ocean to Camp Steffani. The Monterey County Water Resources Agency has taken the lead in this effort with assistance from the District.

In spite of all the rain we had this winter, reaches of the Carmel River have been reduced to a series of isolated pools of water with intermittent flow. District crews have been on the river, along with members of the Carmel River Steelhead Association, rescuing steelhead. Over 3900 juvenile steelhead have been rescued from the mainstem and an additional 3200 young of the year were rescued from tributaries.

We continue to seek public assistance grant funding for repairs to District projects damaged in the January and March floods. No money has been received as yet from the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FBMA) or the State Office of Emergency Services (OES), but we are hopeful.

WHAT'S NEXT? Mel Vercoe

"Nobody for President?" Well, why not? I wrote to Senator Bradley, who is leaving Congress, mainly in disgust, which I agree with. Offered to help him try for the White House. I put a Bradley for President sign on my truck. Didn't hear from him, so I put Carter's name on it, but I don't think he'd try for it, so I'm changing it to "Nobody for President", and I think he'll get a lot of votes. ("Nobody", not Carter.)

Nobody will know who this guy, "Nobody" is, whether he's for or against abortions, affirmative action, unlimited immigration, foreign aid, marijuana, unwed mothers, the $2 billion per year increase (to $30 billion) for the CIA, subsidies for tobacco farmers, or whether he ever "lusted" for anybody he wasn't engaged to marry.

If we find out who he is, he'll have to give the right answer to every voter who asks him a question, which would, of course, be impossible, and he'd have to just drop out of the race.

Meanwhile, General Powell is frightening the bejabbers out of the Republicans, because he might turn out to be either a Democrat, or a Republican, or neither, when election time arrives. The Republicans would like to own him, as a candidate, provided he'd throw his principles out the window, but Powell has higher standards than that, so he's up for grabs as a Democrat, and I don't think he'd go 100 percent along with them, either, so maybe he'll be the "Nobody" on my sign.

I'd not only vote for him, I'd encourage him to set up a Third Party, maybe called the America Party, dedicated to placing our country's future at the top of the priority list, instead of at the bottom.

With a good running mate selection, I don't think he'd need a standard size, multi-million dollar campaign chest.

LETTERS to the Editor

Editor, Carmel Valley Sun:

Looks like your entire 8/31 issue was paid for by the Monterey Peninsula Water Management District (MPWMD) $74,000 propaganda budget.

Hope you have room in the next one for some truths and facts to correct the errors they provided.

On your opinion page, Fran Farina's "Valley Voice" again provided erroneous information on traffic based on a misinterpretation of the Mark Group Traffic Report.

If you add up all the cement trucks on Mark Group Table 3 referring to cement, you will find it equals 9507 truck trips. To equal 4800 loads of cement you must add another 93 truck trips to equal 9600. So as suggested by Ms. Farina, the figures certainly do not include workmen, material, explosives, or the incredible amount of other construction traffic that will come from Seaside, down Highway One, to Carmel Valley Road and on to the dam site.

If "The Sun" serves Carmel Valley, and in fact wants to provide area residents with accurate information on the Los Padres Project the MPWMD is proving to be the least reliable source of accurate or truthful data.

Ms. Farina and the MPWMD's attempt to make this a nimby issue is also dishonest.

The impacts of this project will forever destroy some of the more desirable attributes of the Monterey Peninsula in addition to the havoc they will wreak on the Carmel River and in the Carmel and Cachagua Valleys.

Editor, Carmel Valley Sun:

On August 6, I became separated from my beloved dog Scout. We were a third of a mile up a trail that leads into Garzas Canyon when he picked up on a scent. This behavior was a first for Scout. We became immediately concerned and began searching for him.

Unfortunately, it's seven weeks later and we still haven't found him. I am now making my way through the Valley to take down the flyers, so as to not make trash in your neighborhoods. I will keep fresh flyers up on official bulletin boards if there is the need to contact me.

It has been said, that after experiencing great loss something positive can be gained, despite the overwhelming pain. The "positive" in

At last, at last, it's almost over. Our lives have been in chaos for the past 9 months but we are all getting our lives back in order and we have the Carmel Valley Sun, Dorothy McEwen of Holman Ranch, Tom and Steve of Drought Resistant Nursery, Murphy's Lumber, and Sandy and Stew Clough of Rosie's Cracker Barrel to thank for it. It was last February that Dorothy and Virginia Park and I scrambled to put the "Up the Creek Flood Relief Benefit Party" together. Then, we got hit again and those of us in the neighborhood were too crazed to even think about putting on another event.

All except for Dorothy, Stew, Sandy and Virginia. They have all been working all these many months to organize help, money, food, plants, good cheer, and uplift our spirits. Culmination of 8 months of hard work and all the above angels occurred through a party for the Los Helechos and Camp Stefanie folks at Rosie's Cracker Barrel to say "Phew. It's finally over." Homefire entertained us with their outstanding music and it was one of the most loving, old fashioned, gracious parties I've ever attended.

Drought Resistant Nursery has been absolutely incredible in their community support. Truckload after truckload of donated plants were ours for the taking. Thanks to them, and Robin and Pat Mahoney, we have become (as Wally LeValley says,) "Renaissance Road." Then, Murphy's joined in and gave the flood survivors a very generous gift certificate so we can all build our fences again and make our neighborhood look beautiful. You all have not only lifted our spirits with your generosity but increased our home values as well! Thank you.

Dorothy's work is never ending. She and Jim Fitch organize, bake bar-b-que and finagle donations till they drop. We all appreciate their tireless efforts so much. We honestly would not have come out so well without their loyal support, community spirit and generosity. Thank you.

Stew and Sandy, our neighborhood Sheriff and Guardian Angel ... you are just too good for words. Your happy smiles, constant support, unending hospitality, organizational skills, and the goodness in each of you have helped the entire community to get through this. And, to come out better than we were before. The flood definitely had its silver lining...sunflowers, volunteer tomato plants, wonderful new friends and neighbors, and the people that held us all together. Thank you, from all of us. And, thank you to Norman Spaulding and Virginia Parke of the Carmel Valley Sun who initiated the entire Flood Relief campaign and have been a tremendous support to the community at large. You are all just the greatest.

After a million thanks to the firemen, tractor drivers, army/marines, volunteers, Red Cross, and all the thousands of people who helped us be donating their time, money and spirit to the community, at last a final thank you for getting us through this incredible year with such love and kindness.

Our love to all of you.

Editor, Carmel Valley Sun:

Is there such a thing as a tenured police officer? In the case of Rodney King, Randy Weaver or Mark Fuhrman, logical reasoning should tell us no. There has to be an accountability at the local level.

This is why we have the locally elected Sheriff of Monterey County, Norman Hicks. Voters of this county not only elected Norm Hicks over Bud Cook, they re-elected him the second time over other candidates. Voters shared his views and believed he was making the proper steps toward making the Sheriff's Office what they wanted. This is called democracy, not tenure.

Criticism of staffing changes at the Sheriff's Office in the name of civil rights ignores the civil rights of what the public decided at election time: they chose Norman Hicks to represent public interest in the operations of the Sheriff's Department. He is doing just that, despite attempts to undermine the public trust.

What kind of reason leads a few unelected policemen to believe that they should have more authority than an official elected by the people of Monterey County to operate the Sheriff's Department? It will be a terrible day when a few policemen can override the public will and democracy itself, giving us a tenured police state.

Editor, Carmel Valley Sun:

In my last letter I stated that I would provide some alternatives to the proposed dam. These are numerous, and perhaps they do not cover all that are available. Naturally it is expected that some proponents of this particular dam will find all kinds of reasons why these won't work, not unlike the type of propaganda we received regarding the 1993 desalination proposal.

Nevertheless, some of these alternatives have estimated price tags attached to them, and some do not. Cal-

Investment research isn't only a matter of reading quarterly statements and annual reports. Let's picture a company in the midst of its New Year's Eve party on December 31, 1999. Champagne, funny hats, noisemakers and revelry in anticipation of another strong year for profits. Business has grown steadily for thirty years, thanks in no small measure to the IBM mainframe computers leased for umpty-hundred thousand dollars since 1970. Somewhere along the way, the original source code has been misplaced or forgotten, which is no big problem until midnight on this particular New Year's Eve. At midnight the mainframes won't know how to change the date to "2000". Mr. Robert X. Cringely, in his book "Accidental Empires"*, thinks this will put IBM out of business on New Year's Day, 2000. What do you think it will do to IBM stock values if he is right?

Those of us who almost memorized the number codes of our radio vacuum tubes as they burned out and had to be replaced, rejoiced when transistor radios came on the market. The first computers used vacuum tubes, too, then transistors, and then "chips", which amassed dozens of transistor functions onto a wafer smaller than a fingernail. Modern computers are a few chips and a few gizmos in a box. Now there's a new kind of chip, a "microprocessor." When the microprocessor is designed to perform as a complete computer, we can throw away the box. Mr. Cringely thinks the manufacture of chips-and-gizmo computers in a box will shift to Korea and Japan, but the U.S. will dominate the development of microprocessors and the software that is bound to make them an essential part of daily life ... even after New Year's Day, 2000. If he is right, what will happen to values among today's technology stock champions?

Research tells me the same observation may apply to the stock market - particularly technology issues - as applies to the weather in New England: if you don't like what's happening, wait a minute and it will change.

#2 In a Series on How To Be Secure In Insecure Times

THIS IS A GOOD TIME TO SELL!

by Rand Smith

We've been hearing a lot about how it's a buyer's market in real estate. There's been a lot of gloom and doom talk and I think it's time to look at the positive aspects of the market.

I'd like to talk about why a buyer's market is good for sellers.

You've heard the rumor: Now's a bad time to try to sell your home, because you'll have to take less for it. Here's the fact: Higher priced homes in Monterey County are not appreciating as fast as they once were, and that's putting them in reach of many more buyers. If your home is in this category and you want to sell, we may have more rather than fewer prospective buyers.

And don't overlook the silver lining in today's real estate market. Interest rates are as low as they've been for years (with the exception of last year). That helps the buyer purchase your home. Many people who were unable to afford a home are now able to buy, thanks to low interest rates, special loan programs and high availability. And that's good for buyers and sellers.

Remember, if you want to sell your home, you are also a buyer ... of your next home. The buyer's market can work for you, helping to move you into a more spacious home.

By selling your present home now, you can greet the end of the recession living in a larger home with amenities you've always wanted.

No Hassles.
No Obligation

Major boat recalls announced

The U.S. Coast Guard announced boating safety recall campaigns by six manufacturers: Tracker Marine, Bombardier, WetJet, Yamaha, K.L. Industries and SMR Technologies, Inc.

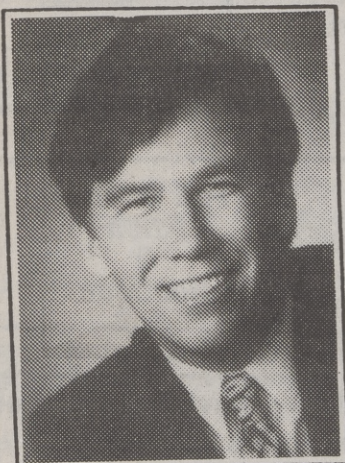

Five of the safety recalls involve possible problems with fuel tanks, steering systems and capacity labels. The sixth campaign is a voluntary recall by SMR Technologies regarding life rafts that may not inflate.

Persons who own any of the models identified in the recall campaigns, who have not received a recall notification, should contact the manufacturer to have the problem corrected. The law requires that the manufacturer correct safety defects at no cost to the customer.

Any boater who wants to know if a vessel is involved in a recall or how to get in touch with the manufacturer may phone the Coast Guard toll free Customer Infoline 1-800-368-5647. Hearing impaired boaters may call the Infoline TDD at 1-800-689-0816.

SHERIFF'S Log

* Two parties on Laurel Spring Road who are involved in a civil dispute in court met on their shared single lane road. Neither would move to let the other by. One threw two rocks at the other, hitting the vehicle. Occupant unsure if he wants to press charges.

* Dive rescue team was paged to Bird Rock at Pebble Beach regarding an overturned boat. All three victims were brought to shore. All in good condition.

* A man on Bird Rock Road, Pebble Beach reported vandalism to an attic roof window from a bb or pellet gun.

* Another man on Bird Rock Road, Pebble Beach reported vandalism to a rental car. Right rear window shot with a bb or pellet gun.

* A Pebble Beach woman reported numerous violations of a stay away order by her husband of Pacific Grove.

* A Seaside man reported the theft of two mountain bikes from a garage on Sloat Road, Pebble Beach. One is a blue Diamond Back Wildwood with Martin gold colored Bobcat shocks.

* A health aide at Victorian Care Home reported a client trying to leave and combative. Client transported to CHOMP.

* Responded to loud music complaints in the area of Pilot and Carmel Valley roads. A wedding reception was in progress. The groom was very cooperative and asked the live band to stop playing. Reception closed without further incident.

* A 911 call was received from the Running Iron reporting 3 subjects fighting inside. Upon arrival one of the waitresses stated it had been verbal only and all involved persons had left. The names of those involved of course are unknown.

* A couple had a verbal argument at Fernwood Camp. The man was upset and breaking things inside the cabin. The woman was never physically touched but was frightened and called 911.

* A Marina man reported a friend from Marina to be missing after losing sight of him at Plaskett Creek Ridge. The friend had been riding a dirt bike. He was not found after a 3 1/2 hour search and was feared to have gone over the edge. His bike was later found parked at Big Sur and he was found in Marina after hitchhiking. His reason for the disappearance was that he was chased by a mountain lion.

* Feuding male neighbors in Pebble Beach reported each other for violating restraining orders. Complaints will be requested through the D.A.'s office.

* A woman of Garapata Ridge reported phone harassment 4 or 5 times a day for the past month. Caller does not speak, just breathes. Party will contact the phone company.

* A Carmel woman reported two windows shot out of her car at Monte Verde at 14th St.

* A man on 14th Street reported someone shot out the rear window of his camper shell. Neighbor heard gunshots at 10:45 p.m.

* A Big Sur woman attempted to rescue her dog after it fell over the cliff at her house.

* A man on Laurel Springs Road reported problems with his water line being broken.

* A woman on Via Petra reported losing her purse at Albertson's. When the purse was found by a store employee, it was determined that $100 and credit cards had been taken. No suspects.

* A man in Pebble Beach reported that his wife spit on him and slapped him for an unknown reason. He said she is supposed to be taking medication but has not. No injury.

* A man at Esalen Institute reported that he found two men asleep in a common living room area. He told them they could not sleep there. He asked them to wait. He turned his back and they disappeared. He could not relocate them.

* Telephone call received from a man who said he lost his Motorola phone at Laguna Seca. He said he had the phone when he got on the bus but noticed it was gone from his jacket pocket when he got off the bus. He located the bus but was unable to find his phone.

* Telephone call received from a worker at Laguna Seca. He had placed his backpack at the rear of the food tent where he was working. It disappeared. He described two men with long hair and beards in the area.

* A man reported his Ford Ranger burglarized while parked near Garrapata Beach. Entry was made by smashing the driver's window. Taken were a dash CD player and a portable phone. Loss $600. No suspects.

* An Albertson's employee reported receiving threatening phone calls from the brother of a worker who had been suspended.

* A Carmel Valley woman reported her 15-year-old daughter left home after an argument. She was located at a friend's home in Marina.

* A man on Flight Road reported that a Jamesburg man had disconnected the cable to his residence. He wished to press charges.

* A couple on Schulte Road were engaged in mutual combat. Neither wished to press charges.

Am Water Company is presently researching all alternatives to determine the most feasible and least costly. This list is comprised of alternatives to replace the 21,000 acre feet which the dam is purported to provide, taking into consideration the state's order to cut back pumping from the river aquifer.

7,500 acre feet desalination plant, $35 million; 4,000 acre feet from the Seaside Basin, (Cal-Am's cost); 3,030 prior authorization by Cal-Am to divert water from the river, no cost; 2,500 acre feet by retrofitting all toilets in the district, $4 million; 2,000 acre feet by dredging and excavating present dams, (Cal-Am's cost); 420 acre feet from the Pebble Beach reclamation project, no cost. These alternatives equal 19,450 acre feet, only 1,550 acre feet short of the total amount we will realize from the dam. Known costs: $39 million.

In addition to the above alternatives, the following are distinct possibilities, which, together with the 19,450 acre feet provided by the above, should equal well over the amount needed for full buildout of the peninsula based on the general plans of all the jurisdictions in the district.

Require the federal government to retrofit DLI and NPS facilities; retrofit all local government buildings in the district; dig more wells in areas never explored; comprehensive conservation; stormwater reclamation; off-channel storage; groundwater recharge; injection wells; rain water collection, and assertion of Pueblo water rights.

All associated costs incurred by Cal-Am will be passed on to the consumer, such as those costs Cal-Am will incur which are associated with the proposed dam, but not publicized by the district. Whatever those costs are, they certainly will not equal the savings by water users if the dam is not built by the district, because we will not have to buy Cal-Am's present dam, (saving millions), and when the voters dissolve the district, an additional savings of many millions of dollars per year.

Editor, Carmel Valley Sun:

Responsible caregiving is a concept that goes beyond the duties of caregiving, but addresses a philosophy of care. It takes into consideration the need to individualize each situation, the nature of the impacts of disabilities, and the overall needs and limitations of each person in the system.

This concept assumes that the most humane, responsible and effective caregiving is usually made up of a system that provides care rather than one individual. Responsible caregiving is a perspective and a skill that is developed over time and requires understanding of ones' own needs as well as the needs of the "patient". It takes into consideration the patient's realistic limitations, the resources available to meet needs, not only financial, but emotional, psychological, etc.

Responsible caregiving is:

Assessment of the needs of all involved and affected by caregiving;

Willingness to make decisions not just based on emotions, i.e. guilt, etc.;

Assessment of resources available to provide care - financial, within family, outside family, community, etc.;

Determination of degree "patient" can participate in decisions regarding care;

Taking on role of case manager in collaborating with others involved with care - i.e. monitoring care, problem solving, giving feedback.

Responsible caregiving is not:

Doing it all yourself no matter what toll it takes on you, your health and your family;

Making decisions out of guilt, fear, anger;

Making decisions based on other's ideas of "shoulds".

Wayne Lavengood, Manager
CHOMP Outpatient Mental Health

Editor, Carmel Valley Sun:

I would like to share the following poem with you and your readers.

There's Feasting At That House
It's just an old dog's water bowl,
An old cat's feeding dish,
But everyday there's leftover
From the indoor cats
And humans,
And so we come.
There's feasting at that house
For all the strays,
The lame old dog,
The opossum three
The fam'ly raccoon
Of four or five or six,
One without a tail,
The other lame,
And all the birds
That come to stay in Spring and Fall,
And all those,
Frightened by a storm.
There's feasting at that house
For one and all,
And so we come.
Thank you.
Best regards,

Brigitta Geltrich
Carmel

Editor, Carmel Valley Sun:

Legislators proposed a Constitutional Amendment that would require the governor and legislators to forfeit their salary and living expenses if a state budget is not enacted by the constitutional deadline.

On Wednesday, August 2, 1995 at 3:25 in the morning, the California State Assembly passed the $57.1 billion budget. Governor Wilson signed the 1995 Budget Act into law the next day.

Even though the California Constitution requires the Legislature to pass the budget by June 15, the Legislature has not met the budget deadline eight times out of the last nine years.

If ACA 32 becomes law, legislators and the governor will not be paid for every day past the budget deadline. The tax dollars saved will go into California's general fund. Under the current situation, legislators get back-pay once the Governor signs the budget.

Generally, Constitutional Amendments are referred to the Assembly Committee on Elections, Reapportionment and Constitutional Amendments, and if ACA 32 is referred to this committee a hearing will be held next spring.

If you would like to express your opinion about ACA 32, please call 408/425-1503 or 408/646-1980, or write a letter to 701 Ocean Street, Santa Cruz, Ca. 95060.

AND THANKS TO ALL OUR FRIENDS AND THE MANY VOLUNTEERS WHO WORKED SO HARD TO MAKE THIS A BLAZING SUCCESS!!!

shot full of 22 caliber holes about 2 months ago.

* Deputies eradicated a marijuana garden about 150 yards south of the Lucia Lodge. It was not visible or easily accessible from the lodge. There were 47 flowering plants. Estimated value at maturity $117,000. The garden was spotted earlier in the summer during routine aerial observation flights. There is suspect information but no arrests have been made.
